Condolence

Three of the four children of Danish billionaire fashion investor Anders Holch Povlsen, the UK's biggest private landowner and owner of the fashion brand group "Bestseller", have been killed in the Easter Sunday bomb attacks in Sri Lanka.

Mr Povlsen is the owner of fashion brand group Bestseller, which is the largest investor in UK-listed online fashion retailer Asos. His fortune is estimated by Forbes at $7.9bn.

We convey our profound sympathy for their bereaved family and pray for their departed soul. Ameen.
